- (g) References to clauses or sub-clauses shall have reference to clauses or sub-clauses of these Standard Terms.
- (h) References to party and parties shall be construed as references to a party or the parties to the Recording Document in question.
- (i) These Standard Terms may be amended at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law and shall take effect from the date of such amendment unless otherwise stipulated by the University.

2. DONOR

All persons comprising the Donor in the Recording Document are deemed by their execution of the Recording Document to:

- (a) Have accepted joint and several responsibility for their obligations as such Donor, including but not limited to delivering payment in accordance with the Contribution Schedule as written in the Rules of Administration (if applicable) via the payment channels specified in the Recording Document.
- (b) Agreed that notification by the University to any one of them is deemed notification to all of them; that receipts (whether tax deductible or not) delivered to any one of them will be considered delivered to all of them; and that instructions, consents or waivers issued to the University by any one of them shall be deemed to have been issued by all of them.
- (c) Unless otherwise stated in the Recording Document, have contributed such Gift equally.
- (d) May at any time at their own discretion make additional contributions, to increase the quantum and/or the number of Gifts to be offered during the term as stipulated in the Recording Document.

3. THE GIFT

- 3.1 The Donor hereby agrees to give a Gift as described in the Recording Document and for such purpose as set out in the Recording Document (the “Purpose”), and in the manner set out in the Recording Document and ROA (if applicable).
- 3.2 All Gifts, whether immediate, as a commitment, or in instalments, is an irrevocable, binding obligation of the Donor, upon which the University is relying.
- 3.3 A Gift should be made in cash or cash equivalents such as publicly listed shares or bonds, which can be readily liquidated into cash.
- 3.4 The Donor acknowledges and agrees that eligibility for tax deduction in respect of the Gift is dependent on the prevailing laws and regulations, including relevant tax laws at the date of the Recording Document and/or the relevant date on which the Gift is made and that any direction, decision, instruction or determination by the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (or any applicable authority) (the “Tax Authorities”) shall be conclusive and binding on the Parties. The University will abide by and comply with such applicable notifications, procedures and law including, where required and in the appropriate circumstances, the University will submit all applicable tax filings to the Tax Authorities and, where applicable, procure the issuance of a tax-deductible receipt. In the event of doubt, the Donor is advised to seek independent professional advice.

4. ADMINISTRATION OF THE GIFT

- 4.1 The administration of the Gift is detailed in the Recording Document.
- 4.2 The Gift, the Gift Account and the Purpose shall be subject to:
- (a) all applicable rules, regulations and guidelines issued by MOE or the relevant authorities; and
 - (b) The Recording Document and ROA (if applicable).
- 4.3 If no Purpose is stated in the Recording Document, the University shall be entitled to determine the application and purpose of the Gift in its sole and absolute discretion.
- 4.4 If the Purpose is fulfilled and there is surplus of the Gift (the “Surplus”), the Donor hereby agrees that the University is entitled to retain the Surplus and will consult with the Donor in good faith to use the Surplus for other purposes. In the event that the University is unable to contact the Donor or the parties are unable to reach a mutual decision, the University retains the right to use the Surplus for other purposes at its sole discretion.
- 4.5 In the event that the fulfilment of the Purpose of the Gift becomes unsuitable, ineffective or cannot be carried out according to the directions given by the Donor, whether in whole or in part, the University may recommend, subject to the Donor’s concurrence, that the Gift be used for such purposes as nearly as possible similar to the original Purpose of the Gift, regard being had to the spirit of the Gift.
- 4.6 If the Donor’s agreement cannot be obtained despite reasonable efforts by the University to do so, the Gift may be used by the University for such purposes as nearly as possible similar to the original Purpose, regard being had to the spirit of the Gift.
- 4.7 The University’s acceptance of a Gift shall not be construed as imposing any obligation on the University to continue to make available any facility, programme, course, activity or event pertaining to the Purpose, each of which shall be determined by the University in its ordinary course of operations.
- 4.8 All decisions in relation to the selection of the recipients will be made by an internal committee of the University, which shall have full discretion to select the recipient. The University shall select the Recipient(s) based on the criteria established in the Rules of Administration.

5. ADMINISTRATION OF GIFT ACCOUNTS (ONLY RELEVANT TO ENDOWED GIFT)

- 5.1 For the purposes of this Clause 5, the gift account shall comprise of the Endowed Gift and any relevant government matching grant (the “Gift Account”).
- 5.2 The University shall have sole discretion in the management and control of the Gift Account and will not be liable to the Donor for any loss, damage, liability or insufficient or inadequate profit made from the Gift Account’s investments.
- 5.3 For the avoidance of doubt, the number and/or value of the Awards (e.g., Bursaries, Scholarships, Study Grants, Book Prizes etc.) to be given out in any Academic Year may be varied by the University in its sole discretion in the event that the investment income at the time of the award fall short of the projected value of Awards in that Academic Year. If the actual returns are consistently less than the projected returns, the University may, in consultation with the Donor, decide to reduce the amount used to fund the Awards, and may consequently reduce the number and/or value of Awards to be given out in subsequent Academic Years.

6. PAYMENT

- 6.1 The University will only issue a receipt for amounts actually received and cleared, net of all banking charges.
- 6.2 Eligibility for tax deduction in respect of a Gift depends on whether the applicable law at the time of the Gift; and only for so long as the University remains an Institution of Public Character. The University will comply with any procedures (including in respect of the issuance of a tax-deductible receipt, if applicable) required of it under applicable laws.
- 6.3 Where the gift is not tax deductible, the University will not issue a tax-deductible receipt and instead will issue an acknowledgement letter to the Donor.

7. AWARDS

- 7.1 The University’s obligation to issue awards shall be conditional upon:
- (a) the suitability of recipients under any selection criteria set out by the Donor in the Rules of Administration and otherwise in accordance with the University’s selection criteria and/or policy from time to time; and
 - (b) the availability of the degree programme concerned; in the case of Endowed Gift, the sufficiency of income (and/or capital as the case may be) from the Gift Fund.
- 7.2 The number of awards stated in the Rules of Administration shall not amount to a representation or warranty by the University that it must or will be able to make the requested number of Awards available in each Academic Year, solely that it will use reasonable endeavours to do so. In the case where there are no suitable recipients as may be determined by the University in its sole discretion in any given Academic Year, the University is not obliged to disburse any awards, and awards not disbursed in any particular Academic Year may be granted in future Academic Years.

8. MATCHING GRANT FROM MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

- 8.1 If the Gift is eligible for matching grant from the MOE, the University will, at its discretion and subject to the relevant laws and regulations, following receipt of the Gift (or each relevant instalment of the Gift), apply for a matching grant in respect of the Gift from the MOE. The Donor acknowledges that the provision of such matching grant is at the sole discretion of the MOE and is subject to the applicable laws and regulations at the relevant time.
- 8.2 In the event that the University’s application for the matching grant is successful and the matching grant is received by the University (whether in whole or in part), the University will deal with the matching grant in accordance with MOE’s requirements and guidelines.

9. NAMING RIGHT

- 9.1 In the case where the University has conferred a naming right to the Donor in recognition of the Gift (the “Name”), the University may withdraw and discontinue the use of the Name or rename it after any one or more of the following circumstances:
- (a) in the event that the Donor does not fulfil the Total Financial Contribution as set out in the Recording Document;
 - (b) to comply with any applicable rules and requirements of MOE or the relevant authorities;
 - (c) if the continued use of the Name will adversely affect the reputation of University as a whole;
 - (d) following an acquisition, merger or dissolution of the Donor;
 - (e) if the name of the Donor falls into disrepute.
- 9.2 The University shall, where time permits and in good faith, consult the Donor before any change is made.
